PARKING
Lots 616 and 617

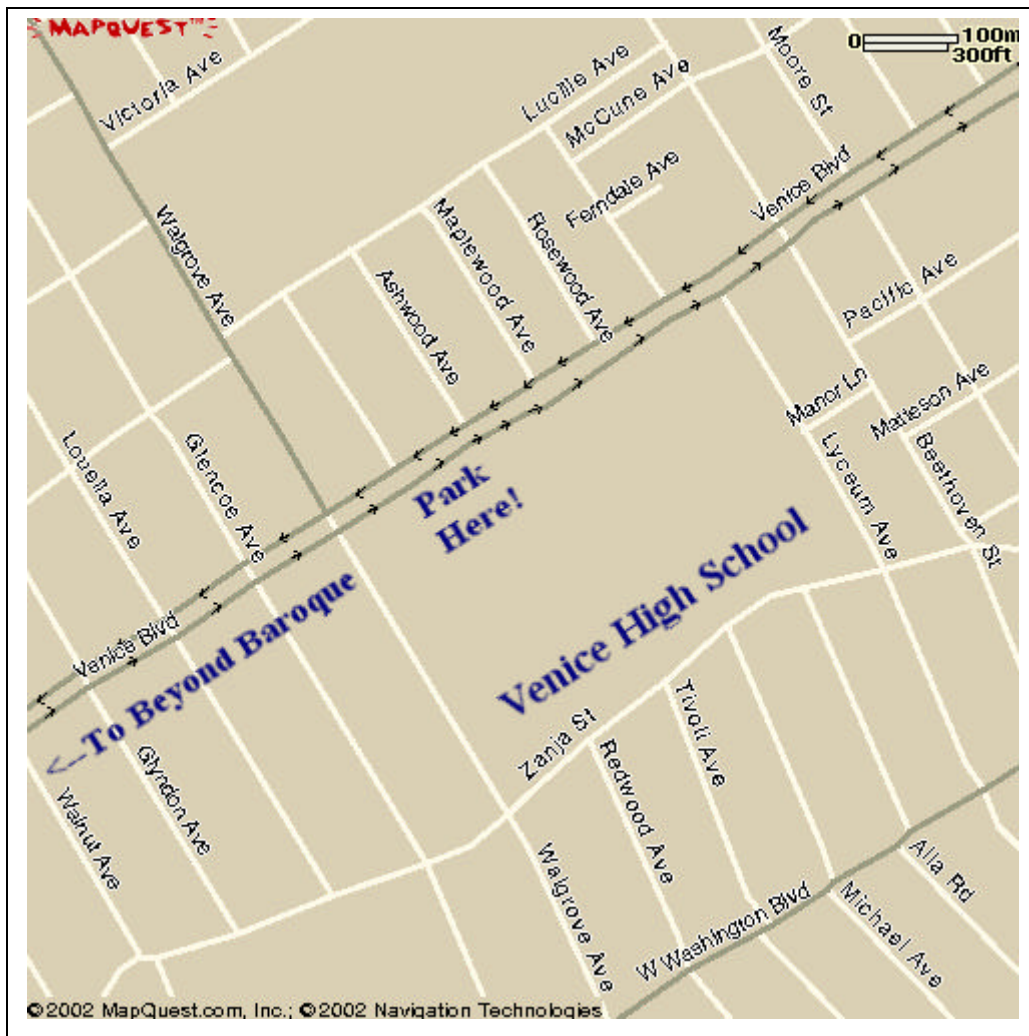

Lots 616 and 617 (located in the rectangular area marked on the map above) are metered public lots that are free from 7:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., then require that you pay the meter after 2:00 p.m. There is a four-hour limit if you park here (bring plenty of quarters!), leaving you plenty of time before The Big Picture concludes at 5:30 p.m. The shuttle van will make several passes through these lots, or you can walk southeast down Electric Avenue to Venice Boulevard, then head east on Venice to Beyond Baroque (just a few minutes to walk).

PARKING
Washington Mutual Lot

We are “unofficially” cleared to park in the Washington Mutual Bank parking lot. What the saint at the bank (who shall remain anonymous) told me was that the bank is closed on Sunday, and the lot is NOT patrolled for parking, so that anyone who parks there should be safe. The shuttle van will pass by this lot as well. If you can’t park in the lot, but find nearby street parking, you can either wait in the lot for the shuttle to come by, or you can walk to Beyond Baroque with the use of the handy map above. Washington Mutual Bank is located at 1415 Lincoln Blvd. (at Milwood Avenue), and their parking lot is right behind the bank. Please do not park in any handicapped spaces, even if the bank is officially closed.

PARKING Venice High School

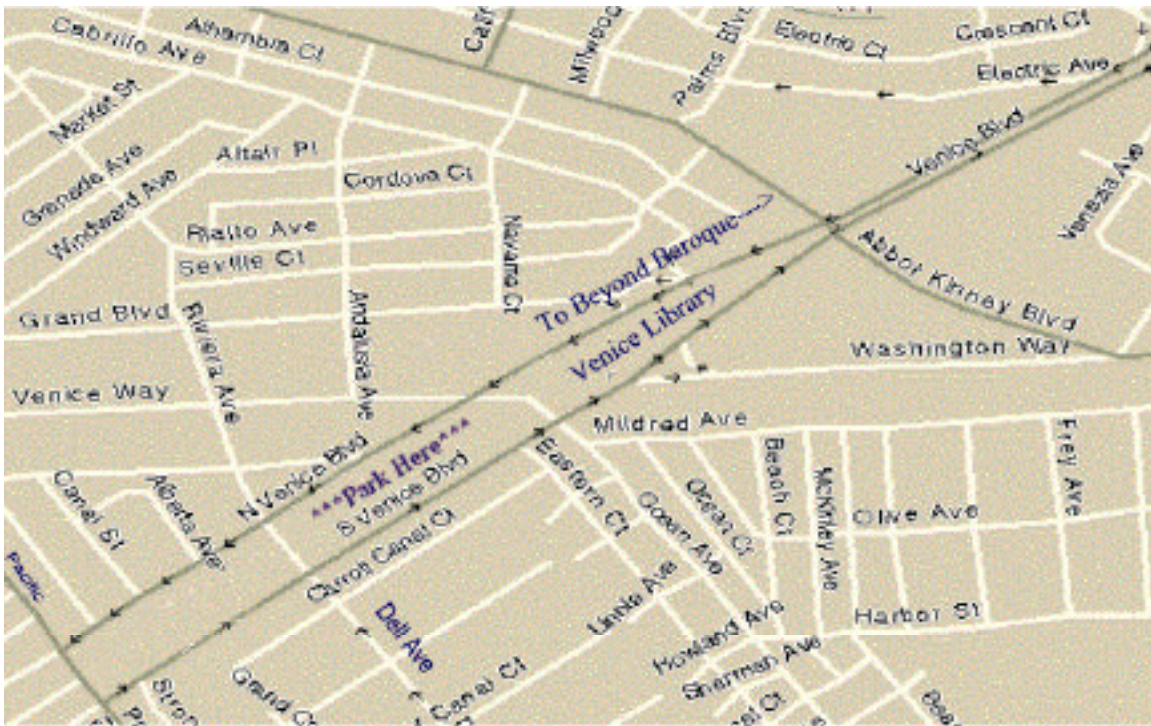

Venice High School is .7 miles east of Beyond Baroque, located on Venice and Walgrove (about a 10-15 minute walk, max, but the shuttle will swing by here, too). The faculty parking lot is almost on the northwest corner of the campus (right next to the school's agricultural compound) and is also used for the adult school on campus. Parking here is free, thanks to the kindly folks at the L.A. Unified School District.
