

New Release!

In Order of Disappearance by Carine Topal

“Topal’s poems awaken under her hand; they live in the present, asking with their fierce beauty if we are paying attention to the world, if we are ready to tell the truth.” ~ Dorothy Barresi

Carine Topal lives in La Quinta, California. Her work has appeared in The Best of the Prose Poem, Greensboro Review, Iron Horse Literary Review, Oberon, Caliban, and many other journals and anthologies. Bed of Want, her 2nd collection, won the 2007 Robert G. Cohen Prose Poetry Award. In the Heaven of Never Before was published in 2008 by Moon Tide Press. She is the recipient of the 2015 Briar Cliff Review Award for Poetry. Her prize-winning book, Tattooed, won the 4th Biennial Chapbook Contest from Palettes and Quills, released in July, 2015. She teaches poetry and memoir workshops in Redondo Beach and the Palm Springs area.

In Order of Disappearance

978-1-892184-18-4; $18; Paperback

Order: _____

Our Foreigner

Poems by Nance Van Winkel

“Van Winkel helps us decipher the signs on the bumpy journey, as we may be met with miraculous events.” Molly Bendall, read the entire review here.

Our Foreigner

978-1-892184-08-5; $18; Paperback

Order: _____ or from Small Press Distribution here

Wide Awake: Poets of Los Angeles and Beyond

Edited by Suzanne Lummis

112 poets including David St. John, Dana Gioia, Gerald Locklin, Wanda Coleman, Brendan Constantine, Timothy Steele, Laurel Ann Bogen, Larry Colker, Robin Coste Lewis, Gail Wronsky, Molly Bendall, Luis J. Rodriguez, Holly Prado, Stephen Yenser, Henry J. Morro, Bill Mohr, Kim Dower, Harry E. Northup, Kate Gale

One of David Ulin’s Top 10 Books of 2015; Read the full review here.

Wide Awake: Poets of Los Angeles and Beyond

978-1-892184-03-0; $18; Paperback

Order: _____ or from Small Press Distribution here